

Guest Lecture in GES070 Invitation to Asian Studies

ゲストレクチャー:GES070 『アジア研究への招き』

Duman Wau Executive Director of LPAM-Nias "Personal Experiences in Aid and Reconstruction after the Indonesia Tsunami" 「インドネシア・ニラス島の津波復興とその後 -ローカルNGOでの復興事業の経験から-」

From Disaster to Sustainable Development

Over the experience of recovery program of the Indian Ocean Earthquake and Tsunami, Duman Wau and his colleagues in LPAM-Nias started to cultivate the land and mind of Nias to get bread and democracy in Nias people's hands with dignity.

LPAM-Nias: The Nias Community Advocacy and Enlightenment Council
This Nias-based local NGO worked emergency food distribution activities right after the earthquake. The NGO built 125 houses and 5 schools with international agencies.

9 MAY (Fri.), 2008

Time: 11:30-12:40

Venue: Honkan Room367, International Christian University(ICU), Mitaka, Tokyo

Language: English

In Lecture Series of "Invitation to Asian Studies" (Open Lecture)

Supported by Institute of Aian Cultural Studies, International Christian University/
Nias Island Network Project (<http://island.geocities.jp/niasproject/index.html>)
Sponsored by Toyota Foundation