

ICU Social Science Research Institute

Politics and Protest: 1840s-1880s –
Creating the People's Voice 民声の構築

Lecturer

Emeritus Professor William Steele

The voice and language of political protest in Japan has sounded throughout modern Japanese history. This lecture explores the culture of popular protest - its language and visual expression - in the late 19th century with reference to 20th century ideas of popular protest.

April 24, Tuesday

13:15-15:00

Honkan H-152

<http://subsite.icu.ac.jp>